

As a realtor I feel the Do Not Call list has its benefits and drawbacks. As a cold caller it limits my ability to do my job but as a person, I feel that everyone should have their peace and not be hassled by phone calls especially during dinner or evening relaxation hours.